The Group to Alleviate Smoking Pollution (GASP of Colorado) is a statewide nonprofit organization established in 1977 that promotes and advocates for smoke-free policies, educates the public about the dangers of secondhand smoke, and provides assistance for people having problems with tobacco-smoke pollution. GASP also provides a variety of educational materials about secondhand smoke and publishes a biannual newsletter available to donors of $35 or more. Click support GASP button on-line to donate.
